The 13th International Gender and Education Association Conference

JUNE 2019

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The Gender and Education Association are pleased to announce that the 13th international conference will be held in June 2019. The GEA executive committee welcomes proposals to host its long-standing international conference from higher education institutions across national contexts and from conference teams spanning a variety of academic disciplines, theoretical backgrounds and fields.

The deadline for submission will be 31st May 2018.

Please use the following points and the full guidance for applicants to help you develop your conference proposal. We suggest that you might include the following information, although this list is not intended to be prescriptive:

- Details of local organising committee
- Conference theme and proposed dates
- Conference country, venue, facilities, accommodation
- Outline of the conference, including provisional programme
- Potential keynote speakers
- Details of funding required from GEA and how this would be used
- Additional sources of funding
- Availability of bursaries to attract early career academics and an international audience
- Publicity and social media strategy for promoting the conference
